Re: Fifth Amendment to Service Contract for Water Treatment Facilities Operations and Asset Management between City of San Marcos and Guadalupe-Blanco River Authority

Dear Mr. Lumbreras:

This letter, upon countersignature below by you, will constitute an agreement (the "Fifth Amendment to Plant Operating Agreement") between the City of San Marcos (the "City") and the Guadalupe-Blanco River Authority ("GBRA" or the "Authority") to amend the Service Contract for Water Treatment Facilities Operations and Asset Management between the City and the GBRA dated September 20, 2005 (the "Plant Operating Agreement").

The Fifth Amendment to Plant Operating Agreement modifies supplements and amends the Plant Operating Agreement. References to the Plant Operating Agreement shall hereafter mean the Plant Operating Agreement as amended by this Fifth Amendment to Plant Operating Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the Plant Operating Agreement and its terms and this Fifth Amendment to Plant Operating Agreement and its terms, this Fifth Amendment to Plant Operating Agreement and its terms shall govern.

In consideration of the mutual benefits to be received by the City and GBRA as a result of the continuation of the Plant Operating Agreement and other related agreements the City and GBRA, agree as follows:

1. The City has requested that GBRA operate and maintain the McCarty Lane Wells and Elevated Storage Tank Facility recently acquired by the City from Crystal Clear Special Utility District.
2. Consistent with the Plant Operating Agreement, GBRA will be responsible for operating, repair and maintenance of the facility excluding repair and maintenance of the two water wells, water well motor control center, electrical supply and controls, backup generator, elevated storage tank and SCADA system.
3. Pursuant to Section 10.4, Pass-Through Cost Component, the City shall reimburse GBRA each month for all electric, chemical and insurance costs as a pass-through cost. These costs are not included in the Service Fee below.
4. Pursuant to Section 10.8(c), Adjustment to Service Fee, the Service Fee is hereby amended by adding to the Base Fee as follows: $25,863.84 per year for McCarty Lane Wells and Elevated Storage Tank Facilities effective _____.

All remaining terms of the Plant Operating Agreement remain in full force and effect. This Fifth Amendment to Plant Operating Agreement will become effective immediately upon your countersignature below.

Sincerely,

Kevin Patteson, General Manager/CEO
