Background Information:

Katherine “Kat” Caffrey was hired in April 2024 with the City of San Marcos as City Hall Project Director. This position provides the hyper-focus needed to bring this highly anticipated and complex project to fruition. This position is temporary, part-time and is housed in the City Manager’s Office with the salary coming from the funds City Council has set aside for the City Hall project.

This presentation will provide an update on efforts completed to date and anticipated next steps.
