Background Information:

In an effort to provide additional transparency and planning efficacy related to City Council meetings, Staff is requesting that the Council consider approval of a Council Meeting Schedule for 2020. This schedule adoption does not prevent additional special meetings or workshops from being called as necessary.

Shown on the proposed schedule are 22 regular meetings, as required by Charter.

Staff is requesting that no regular meetings be held in July to coincide with summer break.

The City Council has historically moved the first meeting in October to accommodate for National Night Out in San Marcos and the first meeting in November due to the Election. Those moved meeting dates are reflected on this schedule.
