Arts Master Plan

Background Information:

The project was conceived by a former Ad-Hoc Committee of the Arts Commission. Members of the committee included Arts Commissioners, Local Artists, Representatives from El Centro and the Indigenous Cultures Institute, and city staff from the Watershed Protection Division.

Inspired by Dr. Mario Garza's indigenous tale of the "Guardians of the San Marcos River", the mosaic tiles panels will represent the five guardians of the river. The project was approved by both the Arts Commission and the Parks Advisory Board.

The artwork will be created by students at San Marcos High School under the direction of Art Teacher Tomas Rogers. The artwork will be installed at Ramon Lucio Park near Pavilion C.
